The junior girls will have a table of fancy articles at the Episcopal church vestry Wednesday and Thursday.

Fred N. Bruley of Merchant street returned this morning from a business visit of several days in Boston.

G. Navoni left the city this morning for Bethel, where he will remain for a visit of several days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gladding returned Saturday to their home in Randolph, after passing several days with relatives in Barre and vicinity.

To-day being St. Andrew's day, there was a special celebration of the holy communion in the Church of the Good Shepherd this morning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Annie Spaulding returned last evening to her home in Essex Junction, after having been the guest of Miss Ruth Parker of Spaulding street over the week-end.

Gus Herning, who was called to Barre by the death of his friend, George McIntosh of Elmwood avenue, returned this morning to Berlin, N. H., where he is employed as a baker.

The young people's society of the Church of the Good Shepherd will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of Walter M. Randall, 5 Averill street, next Friday evening.

Everett C. Jackson returned this morning to the University of Vermont at Burlington, after passing the Thanksgiving recess at the home of his father, E. C. Jackson, in Brookfield.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Knapp of St. Johnsbury arrived in the city Saturday evening. Mr. Knapp returned to St. Johnsbury this morning and his wife will remain for a week's visit with friends.

Christmas club members should look over their cards and see if all payments have been made. December 7 is the last day payments can be made on this year's accounts. Open Saturday and Monday evenings 7 to 8 o'clock. Barre Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Smith and Miss Cora Page, who have been spending several days with relatives in Morrisville and vicinity, were visitors in the city Saturday afternoon while on their way to Williamstown, where Mr. Smith is engaged as the superintendent of schools.

The following item from the Vergennes Enterprise will be of interest locally, inasmuch as it concerns a former Barre boy, who recently returned to Vermont, after having been employed in Denver, Col. for several months: "John Leo Gee, who has been confined to the house for a few days, is now able to be out. Mr. Gee, while struggling at his home recently, fell and struck his head with such force that he was unconscious for several hours. He suffered no serious injuries, other than a sore head and lameness."

John A. Plaisted and son, Paul Plaisted, of 45 Summer street left this morning for Florida, where they expect to pass the winter. They were accompanied by George Clark of Montpelier and together with Walter Cave of Orange and his son, Osmond Cave, they will be employed on a carpentering job on the peninsula during the winter months. The report that Frank Cave was to be a member of the party is erroneous. A number of other Barre people plan to leave the city this week for the South.

The Urban Stock Co. closed a very successful week's engagement at the opera house Saturday evening when they presented the prize-winning play, "The Open Window," before another large house. This company was favored with good patronage the entire week and in return they gave the people full value. The list of plays put on are well known and of the high class not usually attempted by repertoire companies. Members of the company feel as though Barre was their home town inasmuch as two of their number are residents of this city. Miss Marion Johnson, as the leading star, won many friends while here, and no doubt they will be pleased to see her on the local stage sometime in the future. This week the company will play at Montpelier.

George McIntosh, who died at his home Thursday evening, was 25 years of age. He had been a granite cutter only about four years, serving his time at Jones Bros' and latterly he worked at Marr & Gordon's. Now for Christmas

With the largest lot of Christmas goods that we have ever shown. This is sure to be our banner Christmas season. More of the kinds that are each year called for. Sensible kinds for sensible people. A larger line of everything. Thanksgiving coming so late Christmas will be here in a very few days.

Only 22 shopping days more before Christmas day. Time to think to plan to buy if you get busy at once. Early shoppers don't have to look then go back only to find that the article wanted had been sold.

Early shoppers not only get a better assortment but better values. It is always impossible to have values equal though style is not there. First choice should be the best choice. The following we want you to see.

For Christmas Shopping

Things that will appeal to you and the receiver of the gift as sensible and worth every cent paid.

Ladies' Neckwear is one of our best Christmas gifts. It is all so new and acceptable that it pleases everyone. This season you have a chance to buy lots of these new ideas for 25c that are as good as you paid 50c for last year.

Marshall Field's Handkerchiefs are recognized as the greatest line shown in the East. Our assortment represents their better numbers. The war in Europe, where all Handkerchiefs are made, has bothered lots of importers. Some have had to pay more, some are short on their orders. These people have delivered every dozen ordered at lowest prices made for years.

We have a line of 12 1/2c Handkerchiefs for only 10c each.

Our Box Handkerchiefs last season were all sold 10 days before Christmas. You should shop early this season.

We are showing all- linen Hand Embroidered Handkerchiefs this season 2 for 25c (better than you have ever bought).

New Christmas Goods

In a few days our store will be all decorated for Christmas. All of our Christmas kinds are here. You will want to see them.

Lots of kinds here not carried in other stores and we do not have it all. You will find the largest assortment of the kinds we carry of any store in this county.

An entirely new assortment of Hair Ornaments and Barrettes.

New invoice of Pocketbooks and Bags, also new lot of those very wide Belts so stylish.

Jewelry in smaller pieces, such as Pins, Buckles, Baby Pins, Hat Pins, Chains, Coin Purse, and Vanity Bags, all at dry goods prices.

A very large lot of Denmark and Persian Ivory. This time in sets as well as separate pieces. These were put up at our order given last summer and at our prices will save you 25 per cent or over from what you have ever seen these same goods. They are now ready for our display tables.

Mark in your memorandum Black Cat Silk Hosiery and remember that nine pure silk threads are in Black Cat Silk Hosiery, where seven is all that you can find in most all other grades.

We are boxing Hosiery for presents in orders of 50c or over. Silk Hosiery in a box.

Our Special Millinery Sale of odd Felt, Velvet and Velour Hats in colors and black at only 98c each was surely appreciated by many. We have added a few more good models to the line, and these are all on one table at 98c each. This is a lot of Hats that sold at from $2.98 to $5.00.
